NOVEMBER 14TH - THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR B

"The last judgement shall fill sinners with terror, but will be a source of joy and sweetness to the elect; for the Lord will then give praise to each one according to his works." - St Alphonsus Maria de Liguori

A friendly reminder: Please maintain a respectful atmosphere of reverence before and after each Mass so those praying may do so without distraction. Any conversation should be conducted quietly. Also, please remember to turn off your mobile devices.

"By devoutly assisting at Holy Mass you render the greatest homage possible to the Sacred Humanity of Our Lord."
St Leonard

St Joseph Prayer for Protection
Gracious St Joseph, protect me and my family from all evil as you did the Holy Family. Kindly keep us ever united in the love of Christ, ever fervent in imitation of the virtue of our Blessed Lady, your sinless spouse, and always faithful in devotion to you. Amen.

Prayer to St Michael by Pope Leo XIII
St Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

Pushback Against the NSW Euthanasia Legislation: NSW residents are encouraged to complete an online questionnaire at <https://bit.ly/NSWVAD2021> by 11:59pm on 22 November 2021 in relation to the inquiry being conducted into the Voluntary Assisted Dying Bill 2021. Parishioners may seek resources for this from Chris Da Silva, Diocesan Director of Mission & Evangelisation at chris@armidale.catholic.org.au.

NOVEMBER - MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS

"It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from their sins." 2 Maccabees 12:46
Mass offering envelopes at church entrances.
Please pray for the Holy Souls

Prayer for the Holy Souls
Eternal Father, I offer You the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the masses said throughout the world today, for all the holy souls in purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen.

Reflection We must realise that a moment of crisis is not a time of despair, but of opportunity. The more we can anticipate the doom, the more we can avoid it. Once we recognise we are under Divine Wrath, we become eligible for Divine Mercy. It was because of famine the prodigal said: 'I will arise, and will go to my father.' The very disciplines of God create hope. The thief on the right came to God by a crucifixion. The Christian finds a basis for optimism in the most thorough-going pessimism, for his Easter is within three days of Good Friday. Our Divine Lord had pictured the catastrophes that would fall upon a morally disordered civilisation ... he did not say: 'Fear,' but when these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand. The world is serving your souls with an awful summons - the summons to heroic efforts at spiritualisation. Catholics ought to stir up their faith, hang a crucifix in their homes to remind them that we too have to carry a cross, gather the family together every night to recite the Rosary that through corporate prayer there might be intercession for the world; go to daily Mass that the spirit of love and sacrifice might be sprinkled in our business, our social life and our duties. More heroic souls might undertake the Holy Hour daily, particularly in parishes conscious of the needs of prayers of reparation as well as petition, conducting such devotions in their churches. The forces of evil are united; the forces of good are divided. We may not be able to meet in the same pew - would to God we did - but we can meet on our knees. Those who have the faith had better keep in the state of grace and those who have neither had better find out what they mean, for in the coming age there will be only one way to stop your trembling knees, and that will be to get down on them and pray. The most important problem in the world today is your soul, for that is what the struggle is about. The only way out of this crisis is spiritual, because the trouble is not in the way we keep our books, but in the way we keep our souls. The time is nearer than you think.

Venerable Servant of God, Archbishop Fulton J Sheen
